

TC2GO Branded App Privacy Policy

Effective Date: May 29th, 2025

See Supplemental CCPA and U.S. Privacy Laws Notices - Notice at Collection

To offer the [Thai Chili 2go] Rewards program (the “Services”), Rainmaker Capital Partners, LLC d/b/a TC2GO (“Merchant”) has engaged Thanx, Inc. (“Thanx”) as a service provider to operate the mobile applications, websites and related online services that support the Services (the “Platform”).

This Privacy Policy explains the types of personal information Thanx collects on behalf of Merchant via the Platform, how Thanx may use and share that information on behalf of Merchant in the course of operating the Platform, and the choices you have within the Platform to manage your personal information.

Merchant is responsible for any personal information collected in connection with the Services, including any information you provide on the Platform.

Personal Information Collection

Personal information you provide on the Platform.

Personal information that you may provide on the Platform includes:

- Contact data, such as your name, phone number, email address, postal address.
- Profile data, such as the username and password you set for your account on the Services as well as your age, date of birth, gender, and other information you include in your Services account profile.
- Payment data, such as your payment card number and other billing information. This information is handled by Stripe and Basis Theory. To learn more about how they handle your payment data, please visit Stripe’s Privacy Policy and Basis Theory’s Privacy Policy.
- Order data, such as information about orders you place with Merchant and the deliveries of those orders.
- Image data, such as pictures of order receipts you place with Merchant to receive loyalty credit.
- Communications, such as information about you that you provide when you correspond with Merchant.
- Account preferences, such as your preferences for receiving our communications and any other preferences you set in your account on the Platform.

Automatically collected personal information.

When you use the Platform, Thanx and other service providers and advertising partners may automatically log information about you, your computer or mobile device, your activity over time, and your interactions with marketing communications, such as:

- Device data, such as your device's operating system type and version, manufacturer and model, browser type, mobile application/SDK version, screen resolution, RAM and disk size, CPU usage, device type (e.g., phone, tablet), internet protocol (IP) address, unique identifiers (including identifiers used for advertising purposes), API keys, language settings, mobile device carrier, radio/ network information (e.g., WiFi, LTE, 3G) and status, time zones, and general location information such as city, state or geographic area.
- Online activity data, such as pages or screens you viewed, how long you spent on a page or screen, the website you visited before browsing to the Platform, navigation paths between pages or screens, information about your activity on a page or screen, access times, and duration of access.
- Precise geolocation when authorized by you through the Platform.

Cookies and similar technologies. Some of the automatic collection described above is facilitated by cookies and similar technologies:

- Cookies are small data files stored on your device for record-keeping purposes. The Platform may use cookies to save your login information for future logins, to enable certain features of the Platform, to better understand how you interact with the Platform, and to monitor usage of and web traffic routing on the Platform.

- Web Beacons (also known as pixel tags or clear GIFs) are tiny graphics with a unique identifier that may be included on the Platform for several purposes, including to deliver or communicate with cookies, to track and measure the performance of the Platform, to track when email messages are opened, and to monitor the effectiveness of advertising.
- SDKs. The Platform uses third-party software development kits ("SDKs") to provide analytics regarding the use of our mobile applications, to integrate with social media, add features or functionality to the Platform, and to facilitate online advertising.

These cookies and similar technologies may be operated by third parties, and can be used by these parties to recognize your computer or mobile device when it visits the Platform. You can learn more about options for limiting use of cookies and similar technologies in the Your Choices section below.

Personal Information Use

The personal information collected through the Platform will be used to facilitate the Services you receive from the Merchant. This may include:

- Providing, operating and improving the Services and Platform;
- Enable the functionality of the Platform, including to authenticate you, enable features, prevent fraud, implement security measures, ensure server up-time, minimize crashes, and improve scalability and performance;
- Communicating with you about the Services, including by sending announcements, updates, security alerts, and support and administrative messages, including through emails, text messages and push-messages;
- Sending you Merchant-related service messages, such as text messages about the status of an order or delivery;
- Understanding your needs and interests, and personalizing your experience;
- Providing support for the Services, and responding to your requests, questions and feedback.

Merchant may also use personal information collected through the Platform for other purposes in accordance with its own policies and procedures. For example, Merchant may use personal information:

- To analyze user behavior, understand how users engage with the Services, and for other research and development purposes;
- To send you direct marketing communications, such as marketing emails and text messages, where permitted by applicable laws;
- For interest-based advertising, such as to display ads on other online services, including through the use of third-party advertising cookies and similar technologies that collect information about your online activities; and
- To comply with applicable laws, lawful requests, and legal process, such as to respond to subpoenas or requests from government authorities, to protect rights, privacy, safety or property (including by making and defending legal claims), to audit internal processes, to enforce the terms and conditions that govern the Services; and to prevent, identify, investigate and deter fraudulent, harmful, unauthorized, unethical or illegal activity, including cyberattacks and identity theft.

Information Sharing and Disclosure

Personal information collected through the Platform may be shared as follows:

Sharing with Thanx to operate the Platform. Because the Platform is operated by Thanx, any information you provide via the Platform, or that Merchant inputs to the Platform, may be hosted and stored by Thanx on Merchant's behalf. Thanx uses this information to provide the Platform under contract with Merchant and in accordance with Merchant's instructions and applicable laws. Thanx may also rely on other third-party service providers that help it operate the Platform, such as hosting, information technology, support, email and text message delivery, and website analytics services. Your personal information may also be disclosed in connection with a merger, acquisition, reorganization or sale of all or a portion of Thanx's assets or in the event of bankruptcy.

Sharing with Card Networks (If Card-Linked Loyalty Is Offered). The following provisions apply only if Thai Chili 2go offers card-linked loyalty as part of the Services and do not apply to check-in based loyalty.

If you connect a payment card to the Services, your payment card information will be shared with your payment network (e.g., AMEX, MasterCard or Visa) to enable the payment network to examine transactions on your connected payment card and to facilitate your participation in the Services (e.g., to administer the loyalty programs you join and your accrual of rewards). You can remove your payment card from your account at any time in your settings. When you do so, no future transactions will be associated with the removed card. However, prior transactions may be retained as necessary to maintain your rewards program progress and administer applicable rewards. Transactions may be retained as necessary to maintain your rewards program progress and keep track of any applicable rewards. Transactions may be retained as necessary to maintain your rewards program progress.

Sharing initiated by Merchant. Merchant may share personal information through integrations in the Platform to provide services to you and for other purposes. For example, Merchant may enable third party software integrations, such as Olo, Toast, DoorDash, and Uber, to facilitate online ordering, point-of-sale, and delivery services. Merchant may also share personal information with advertising partners via integrations in the Platform, such as Klayvio, Braze, and others for the purpose of sending marketing campaigns.

Your Choices. Through the Platform, you may have the choices below regarding the collection, use and sharing of your personal information.

- Opt-out of offers and promotional communications: You can opt out of promotional emails and text messages sent via the Platform by following the instructions provided in the communication you receive. Please note that if you opt out, you may still receive certain transactional communications regarding the Services, such as updates to the terms applicable to the Services or this Privacy Policy.
- Changing or deleting your account information: In addition to your ability to exercise consumer rights as set forth in the Supplemental CCPA and U.S. Privacy Laws Notices - Notice at Collection, you can review, update, correct or delete the personal information accessible from your accounts by contacting support@thanx.com. If you request to delete all your information or any information necessary to maintain your account, then your account may become deactivated.
- Google Analytics: The Platform uses Google Analytics to understand how people engage with the Platform and to create reports about how users use the Services. For more information on Google Analytics, click here. For more information about Google's privacy practices, click here. You can opt out of Google Analytics by downloading and installing the browser plug-in available at: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

Merchant may offer additional choices and allow you to exercise any rights accorded to you under applicable laws. For more information, please contact Merchant directly.

Links to Other Sites

The Platform may contain links to other websites. If you choose to visit a third-party link, you will be directed to that third party's website. A link to a website is not an endorsement, authorization or representation of any affiliation with that third party, nor is it an endorsement of their privacy or information security policies or practices. Other sites follow different rules regarding the use or disclosure of the personal information you submit to them, and you should read the privacy policies or statements of the other websites you visit for more information.

Children

The Services are not intended for use by children under 18. If a parent or guardian of a child believes the child has provided personal information without their consent as required by law, please contact support@tc2go.com.

Response To "Do Not Track" Signals

Some Internet browsers may be configured to send "Do Not Track" signals to the online services that you visit. The Platform currently does not respond to "Do Not Track" signals. To find out more about "Do Not Track," please visit <http://www.allaboutdnt.com>.

- Sale of Personal Information; Sharing of Personal Information Right to Opt- Out

Cookies and other similar technologies may be used to help advertise Merchant's services on other websites or services you might visit. Merchant may also share information with advertising networks and analytics partners to support interest-based advertising, which may qualify as a "sale" or "sharing" of personal information. You can opt-out of our use or sharing of personal information for these purposes through:

<https://dashboard.thanx.com/ccpaoptouttool>.

- Collection of Sensitive Information

Merchant only uses precise geolocation if you have consented by enabling location access through the Services and solely for purposes of providing you with goods or services you have requested.

- Consumer Rights. Consumers may contact Merchant by email at [privacy@merchant.com] with "Privacy Request" in the subject line to exercise the following privacy requests:
 - Request to Disclose At No Charge:
 - specific pieces of personal information it has collected about you;
 - categories of personal information collected, used, and/or disclosed about you;
 - categories of sources from which personal information is collected;
 - business and/or commercial purposes for collecting and disclosing your personal information; categories of third parties with whom your personal information has been disclosed/shared
 - Request to Delete At No Charge: Except as exempted pursuant to CCPA 1798.105 and applicable U.S. Privacy Laws, to request to delete personal information. Deletion Requests can be submitted to Merchant by email at [support@tc2go.com] or by mail to Merchant at: [Merchant] Attention: Privacy Request to Delete, [4838 E Baseline Rd #130, Mesa, Az 85206]
 - Request to Correct At No Charge: Requests to correct any inaccurate personal information collected by Thanx can be submitted by email to [support@tc2go.com]

- Verified Request Process

Merchant may ask for additional information to verify your request prior to taking action in response to such request. Under the CCPA and applicable U.S. Privacy Laws, you may also designate an authorized agent to make these requests on your behalf.

Authorized agents must demonstrate they have written authorization from you to make requests on your behalf. Merchant may additionally require the consumer to confirm their identity and verify the authorized agent's permission before complying with any request.

- Consumer Request Limitations

Please note that these rights are not absolute and in certain cases are subject to conditions or limitations as specified in the CCPA or other applicable U.S. Privacy Laws, including, but not limited to:

- Merchant is obligated to disclose/delete only upon a verifiable request.
- You may only make a personal information request twice in a 12-month period.
- Deletion is not required where it is necessary for Merchant to maintain the personal information to fulfill the purposes enumerated in CCPA Section 1798.105 and applicable U.S. Privacy Laws.

Merchant will confirm and respond to all requests within the timeframe required under the CCPA. In responding to any request to disclose/delete, Merchant shall maintain a record of the requests as required under the CCPA and applicable U.S. Privacy Laws.

- Non-Discrimination Policy

You have the right not to receive discriminatory treatment for exercising any rights conferred by the CCPA and applicable U.S. Privacy Laws. Merchant shall not discriminate against you for exercising any rights under the CCPA, including, but not limited to, (a) denying goods or services, (b) charging different prices or rates (including discounts/penalties) that are not directly related to the value provided to Merchant for the personal information, or (c) suggesting you will receive a different rate/price or different level of quality of goods/services.

- Right to Appeal

If you are in a jurisdiction that recognizes your ability to appeal a decision made in connection with your attempt to assert a right under applicable U.S. Privacy Laws, you may file an appeal of our decision refusing your request to exercise your rights under this privacy notice. You may request an appeal of such decision by contacting us at privacy@merchant.com. Please provide the state that you are writing from, accompanied with documentation you may have regarding the matter you are appealing. Thanx will respond to your appeal request within the timeframe required under the U.S. Privacy Laws applicable to your state of residence.

If your jurisdiction allows you to file a complaint with the state's Attorney General's Office regarding any concerns with the result of your appeal request, you may do so by using the following links as may be applicable to you. You may submit a complaint to the Attorney General's Office by selecting the appropriate link: Virginia (www.oag.state.va.us/consumer-protection/index.php/file-a-complaint), Montana (<https://dojmt.gov/office-of-consumer-protection/>), Colorado (coag.gov/file-complaint), Connecticut (portal.ct.gov/AG/Common/Complaint-Form-Landing-page), Nebraska (<https://www.nebraska.gov/apps-ago-complaints>), or by email to privacy@delaware.gov (Delaware) or AskConsumerAffairs@dca.njoag.go (New Jersey).

- Your California Privacy Rights under California Civil Code Section 1798.83 & Business and Professions Code Section 22581

California law permits you to request and obtain once a year, free of charge, certain information about your Personally Identifiable Information ("PII") (as defined by California law) disclosed to third parties for direct marketing purposes in the preceding calendar year (if any). If applicable, this information would include a list of the categories of PII that was shared and the names and addresses of all third parties with which we shared information in the immediately preceding calendar year.

In addition, a business subject to California Business and Professions Code Section 22581 must allow California residents under age 18 who are registered users of online sites, services or applications to request and obtain removal of content or information they have publicly posted. Your request should include a detailed description of the specific content or information to be removed. Please be aware that your request does not guarantee complete or comprehensive removal of content or information posted online and that the law may not permit or require removal in certain circumstances.

- NOTICE OF FINANCIAL INCENTIVE FOR CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS

The Services enables you to receive a variety of rewards via loyalty programs in exchange for allowing us to collect and use personal information about you.

When you participate in the Services, you allow us to collect (directly or indirectly), use, and retain personal information on an ongoing basis, as described in this Privacy Policy. This includes personal information such as name, email address, phone number, preferred service locations, and at your option, birth date, gender, and payment data. If you join the Services, in exchange for your participation, you will be able to earn discounts on purchases, free items, personalized customer experiences, prize items, including from the rewards marketplace, reward points, credit towards your account, or other financial incentives, the amount and nature of which will be determined by the extent of your participation in the Services and other factors. We may adjust the Services periodically and will notify you of changes. You can opt into the Services by joining the Services on the mobile application or website, through a third party service, or at the point of sale in a store. You also have the right to withdraw from the rewards program at any time by leaving the Services.

If you wish to stop participating in the Services, you can send an email to support@tc2go.com.

The rewards available to you through the Services are based upon the reasonable determination of the value that Merchant receives from collecting and retaining personal information. This estimated value takes into account a variety of factors as permitted by law, including (but not limited to) the expenses incurred in collecting and retaining the information, the expenses incurred in providing rewards to you, and the estimated marginal revenue that derived from information related to a specific loyalty participant and program.
